

2013 December 23

*Leonard Rowekampe,
to be Master Commissioner of Kenton County, supervised the close of a usurious Loan 5/3 Bank knew was fraudulent, and knew was repugnant to John Schmidt who learned about said Loan one year later.*

The Lakeside Presbyterian Church Secretary / Notary Public flagrantly failed her oath of Office to the Commonwealth notarizing the presence of Deborah's husband in his absence.

Garry Edmondson, Kenton County Attorney, offered no remedy for felonious failure by the Notary agent of the Commonwealth.

*JP Morgan provided the cash to: incentivize the fraud and buy the Note;
pay the servicer terrorizing the good husband;
provide false witness and be excused for missing records;
buy orchestration by lawyers and rulers to subvert justice.*

*JP Morgan sold the Note to Bank of New York Mellon who paid the lawyers and rulers to deny the tireless pursuit of justice by the good husband and fatherly community servant
faithfully practicing the lessons of civil education guided by the teachings of Christ.*

Merry Christmas.

14 03 16 NYT Gretchen Morgenson (last paragraph):

As Mr. Kaufman said: "The report fits a pattern that is scary for a democracy, that there really are two levels of justice in this country, one for the people with power and money and one for everyone else. And that eats at the heart of what I think makes this country great."

Kenton Circuit Court 08-CI-00499
KY Court of Appeals 2011CA000536
KY Supreme Court 2012-SC-000326